Hosting and Financial Information

Q & A's

Q

How many paid attendees are needed for an event with Robert Rudelic?

A

The minimum required is 25 with 40-60 being the desirable class size.

Q

What type of facility is needed to host an event?

A

A room large enough to accommodate the group taking the training. Massage schools, gyms, yoga studios and community recreation rooms are a few good examples. It's important to keep in mind if you are working with a smaller group of attendees you'll want a facility that is free or a very small fee. If a large group is expected to attend, renting a meeting room large enough to accommodate the group is fine because there will be more revenue from registration fees to offset the cost.

Q

What is expected of me if I'm the host?

A

You will be responsible for finding the location, securing the facility for the event dates, advertising, coordinating any needed equipment such as chairs and the usual common sense stuff. If you are not set up to accept and hold the registration fees, this can be coordinated with the Robert Rudelic Organization.

Q What will you provide for me?

A Once the dates of the event are decided, you will be sent a photo ready, master brochure including all the necessary information about the event. All you have to do is get the copies made and distribute them. At the event, all the student hand outs and course materials will be provided.

Q Will there be products available to purchase at the event?

A Yes. We will have e-learning courses, one on one coaching programs and from time to time nutritional supplements available for attendees to purchase. All “back of the house” sales are not included in shared revenue. It is the sole responsibility of the Robert Rudelic Organization to manage and collect for any sales of the above mentioned items.

Q What is the financial/shared revenue arrangement?

A The host (you) will collect all the admission fees from the attendees unless coordinated with the Robert Rudelic Organization. If you do not have the ability to accept credit cards, the Robert Rudelic Organization can do that for you. For accounting purposes it is important to be very organized on this to eliminate any confusion.

Q What percentage do I get as the host and what does the Robert Rudelic Organization get?

A You the host will get 40% of the net revenue and the Robert Rudelic organization gets 60%. The net revenue is after expenses which are – facility rental (if any) cost of copies and other miscellaneous costs associated with putting the event together, plus reimbursement for (reasonable) travel expenses for the Robert Rudelic Organization. A standard formula is in place as to the expected costs of an event so all parties involved can greatly benefit from their efforts.

EXAMPLE: $$195.00 \times 25 = $ 4,875.00 - $1,000.00$ (est. expenses). Host nets $1,550.00

EXAMPLE: $$195.00 \times 60 = $11,700.00 - $2,000.00$ (est. expenses). Host nets $3,880.00
